DETAILED ACTION

In response to the "Request for Reconsideration" dated January 25, 2005, the examiner acknowledges that the Norton patent does not disclose a one-way valve. However, the examiner conducted a secondary search on the subject matter of the pending claims and found prior art pertinent to the prosecution of this application. Accordingly, the following rejections are presented by the examiner to expedite the prosecution of this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000.

Art Unit: 3763

Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kelly. The Kelly patent discloses a lumen having a proximate end and a distal end, and inflatable cuff surrounding the lumen, the lumen having a first and second conduit, the first conduit in communication with the inflatable cuff, the second conduit in fluid communication with the proximate end of the lumen, a port at an end of the first conduit, and a one way valve in the port. Please refer to figures 2, 3, 5, and 7.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Thornton. The Thornton patent discloses a lumen having a proximate end and a distal end, an inflatable cuff surrounding the lumen, and a hydrophobic tip on the lumen proximate end.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kelly in view of Thornton, Meythaler et al., and in further view of Stone. The Kelly patent does not disclose the use of filters at the distal and proximal ends. However, the Thornton patent demonstrates that it is conventional to design catheters having hydrophobic tips; furthermore, in relation to the use of filters in combination with infusion ports, Meythaler et al., demonstrates that such use is conventional in the art. Finally, Stone demonstrates that the use of hydrophobic and charcoal filters in combination with filters is well known in the art.

Based on the above observations, for a person of ordinary skill in the art, the modification of the Kelly catheter with filters, hydrophobic or charcoal, at the proximal or distal ends of said catheter would have been considered obvious in view of the conventionality of these enhancements.

Conclusion

In view of the new prior art used in the above rejection, this action is not a final office action.
